

Native to Mexico, poinsettia flowers were introduced to the United States in 1825 by Joel R. Poinsett. They are known as the "Christmas Flower" due to their star shape and traditional red & green color. The red "petals" are actually leaves, which change color based on their exposure to light. Poinsettias are the birth flower of December. In the language of flowers, they symbolize success and good cheer.

Post Card

Carte Postale + Art + Design by CG Wilkie + 2020

Native to Mexico, poinsettia flowers were introduced to the United States in 1825 by Joel R. Poinsett. They are known as the "Christmas Flower" due to their star shape and traditional red & green color. The red "petals" are actually leaves, which change color based on their exposure to light. Poinsettias are the birth flower of December. In the language of flowers, they symbolize success and good cheer.

Post Card

Carte Postale + Art + Design by CG Wilkie + 2020

Native to Mexico, poinsettia flowers were introduced to the United States in 1825 by Joel R. Poinsett. They are known as the "Christmas Flower" due to their star shape and traditional red & green color. The red "petals" are actually leaves, which change color based on their exposure to light. Poinsettias are the birth flower of December. In the language of flowers, they symbolize success and good cheer.

Post Card

Carte Postale + Art + Design by CG Wilkie + 2020

Native to Mexico, poinsettia flowers were introduced to the United States in 1825 by Joel R. Poinsett. They are known as the "Christmas Flower" due to their star shape and traditional red & green color. The red "petals" are actually leaves, which change color based on their exposure to light. Poinsettias are the birth flower of December. In the language of flowers, they symbolize success and good cheer.

Post Card

Carte Postale + Art + Design by CG Wilkie + 2020

Native to Mexico, poinsettia flowers were introduced to the United States in 1825 by Joel R. Poinsett. They are known as the "Christmas Flower" due to their star shape and traditional red & green color. The red "petals" are actually leaves, which change color based on their exposure to light. Poinsettias are the birth flower of December. In the language of flowers, they symbolize success and good cheer.

Post Card

Carte Postale + Art + Design by CG Wilkie + 2020